THE MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1770.

LONDON, January 23.

IT is remarkable that Mr. Yorke, upon a Promiſe to his Friends, particularly to the Marquis of Rockingham on Wedneſday laſt, refuſed the Seals. In the Afternoon he waited on the Duke of Grafton to declare his acceptance of them; in the Evening they were delivered him by his Majeſty. On Thurſ- the King granted him the Dignity of a Baron by Title of Lord Morden. On Friday he was pre- g to wait on his Majeſty, in Conſequence of a ſage received, but on that Day relapſed; and on rday happened the unfortunate Event of his ath.

b. 3. Yeſterday Lord North kiſſed his Majeſty's nd on being appointed firſt Lord of the Treaſury, the Room of his Grace the Duke of Grafton, re- ned.

We are told that L—d G———r, on finding his ——y intended to plead againſt him, has thought oper to make ſome Propoſals to her, which have been uſed.

It having been induſtriouſly propagated that L—d th is only M——r pro tempore, we are informed, t his L————p is ſo far from being choſen to fill Interval between an old and new Set of men, that is determined to continue in Office, under a cer- nty of the firm Support of the K—— and P———t. e idle Report of his ſpeedy Reſignation is one of ſe political Fictions, which a Faction who have ſpired together againſt Order and Government, e invented for private Views.

b. 5. It is ſaid that Lord Rockingham came into Houſe of P—rs Yeſterday, with an additional Re- rcement of no leſs than Seven Lords.

On Wedneſday, in a certain Aſſembly, Col. L——ll de a long and florid Speech in defence of his own ſe; and Lord N——h made a very ſpirited Anſwer Mr. B—e.

t is ſaid that on Friday Lord How reſigned the ice of Treaſurer of the Navy; Earl Cornwallis his ice of one of the Joint Vice Treaſurers of Ireland; l Lord Viſcount Liſburne his Poſt of one of the Lord mmiſſioners of the Board of Trade.

Friday came on, before a very great Aſſembly, the eſtion, by Adjournment of the State of the Nation, rticularly in Regard to the Power of the H. of C. in apacitating Mr. W. The Arguments made uſe of re, "That as the State conſiſted of Three Branches Legiſlation, K—g, L—ds, and C———s, each had Right to inſpect into the State of the other, particu- ly when it was ſuppoſed that one had infringed on e Bounds of their Prerogative. It was aſked, if it s not ſo, why the Two other Eſtates were conſtitut- ; as they would be eſtabliſhed to very little Purpoſe, they had not at all Times the Power of checking, as ell as co-operating. Lord C. particularly obſerved, at this was ſo plain and common a Procedure, that wondered how any one, in the leaſt acquainted with e Hiſtory of his own Country, could poſſibly gainſay ."

Thoſe on the Side of A——n, inſiſted, that "the rivilege of the H. of C. extended at any Time to Ex- lſion and Incapacitation; that they were definitive their Judgment, ſo far as reſpected their Members, d the Orders of their Aſſembly. They then quoted wo Precedents, the one in the Caſe of Lionel, E. of Middleſex; and the other in that of Lord Bacon, who ere both expelled the great Aſſembly they belonged , and, by a Vote of that Aſſembly, rendered incapa- itated from ever ſitting there. They further diſputed e Legality of Mr. W——'s Election, alledging, that was procured by Violence and Intimidation, and not y the free, uninfluenced Votes of the Freeholders."

Theſe Debates continued 'til Half an Hour paſt Eleven at Night, when the Diviſion in favour of the ndependent Power of the H. of C. was Two to One.

The following Reſolution was then moved, "That his H. had no right to interfere with the Determina- ions of the other, as it might tend to create Jealouſies nd Animoſities between them." This was debated ith great warmth 'til one o'Clock in the Morning. The Queſtion was then put, and it paſſed in the Affir- ative, nearly as the foregoing Queſtion.

Speakers for, D. of G——n, L—d W———h, L—d ——nt, L—d S—d——h, R——f——rd, L—d —b—h. Speakers againſt, D. of R——d, M—ſs of ——m, E. of C——m, L—d C—m—n, L—d S—f- k, L—d T—m—le.

Feb. 7. It is aſſerted, that the Lord Mayor has declared, that if any Buſineſs is offered to be propoſed, beſides what the Common Council is ſummoned for, he will order the Sword to be taken up immediately.

It is certain a very great Perſonage has declared, "that he will not be forced into a d—n of P—t, or even a change of M———y."

A Bill, it is ſaid, is preparing with all Expedition, for the regulating all expulſatory and incapacitating Reſolutions of a certain Aſſembly in futuro.

It is ſaid the Diſpute is now, Whether, in future Expulſions, the Senſe of the Aſſembly ſhall be collected from Two-Thirds of the Perſons preſent, or a Majority only.

It is ſaid to be a Piece of profound Policy in the M———y, not to fill up the Offices that are now vacant, 'til a certain important Queſtion comes on in a particular Place for a final Determination; when, by a timely Diſtinction, they will ſecure to themſelves a Majority againſt all Oppoſition.

The Society of the Bill of Rights are now putting in order a Plan for the total Diſcharge of Mr. Wilkes's Debts.

It is ſaid that the Petition of the American Merchants, praying that the Parliament will repeal all the Laws for internal Taxation, is in Conſequence of a Plan concerted between ſome of the Principals in that Trade and A————n. This Mode of Redreſs is entirely diſagreeable to the Americans, and has been declared ſo by many of them who are now in England.

It is ſaid, there will ſoon be a general Review and Inſpection of all his Majeſty's Ships of War now laid up in the ſeveral Ports of England.

Advices arrived this Day from Genoa declare, that the Appearance of the Ruſſian Fleet in the Mediterranean occaſions great Speculation; that they expect the Toulon Squadron will ſail, as ſoon as the Ruſſians quit Port-Mahon; and that Eight Spaniſh Ships of War are fitting out at Ferrol, and ſome others at Cadiz.

Whilſt a certain American G———r is perpetually aſſerting both in public and private, that the Reſolution of the Americans not to import Britiſh Manufactures 'til the Repeal of the Act for impoſing Duties on Tea, Paint, Paper, and Glaſs, is a mere Rope of Sand that will break of itſelf; we have the Mortification to aſſure the Public, that conſiderable Quantities of Goods, which were ſent out laſt Autumn to New-York and Philadelphia, are actually returned, and now in the River, which any Body may be ſatisfied of, by examining the Entries at the Cuſtom-Houſe of the Cargoes per the Ships Dutcheſs of Gordon, Capt. Winn; New-York, Capt. Height, from New-York; and the Philadelphia Packet, Capt. Falconer, from Philadelphia; not to mention what is come to Hull and other Out-Ports, which we know to be conſiderable. Now as thoſe returned Goods conſiſt principally of ſuch Articles as the Americans are ſuppoſed to be leaſt able to do without, we think there cannot be a ſtronger Proof at once of the Perſeverance of the Americans in the Reſolutions they have entered into, and of the implacable Enmity of the above titled Incendiary, in endeavouring to keep up that Miſunderſtanding which he had ſo great a Hand in creating.

During the Debate in a certain great Aſſembly on Friday laſt, L—d C——d—n, upon its being aſſerted that he had but very lately diſcovered the Part he acted with reſpect to the Middleſex Election, and that it was always underſtood he had totally coincided with the Proceedings of Parliament, appealed to the D—e of G———n, for his Opinion on that Matter. The D—e of G———n then roſe up, and ſaid, "As he had been called upon, he would candidly declare his Opinion of the Matter, which was, that he always underſtood it, (though not in direct Terms) that the Noble Lord who had appealed to him, acquieſced in the Meaſures of Incapacitation." The E—l of C—th—m then vindicated L—d C————n, by aſſuring the Aſſembly, that, to his particular Knowledge, he was againſt that Meaſure, for in ſeveral Converſations with him, he declared his Opinion, and ſupported it by Reaſons, ſhewing its Impropriety and Unconſtitutionality. The Aſſembly then called out, "The Queſtion! The Queſtion!" On which L—d C——d—n previouſly requeſted to be heard a few Words more for his further Vindication: He then acquainted the Aſſembly, "That the Reaſon why he did not in direct Terms expreſs himſelf on this Meaſure (as the Noble D—— he applied to obſerved) was, that as it was a Meaſure never debated, as an Object of A————n, (at leaſt before him) he, therefore, thought introducing ſuch a Subject did not belong to his Province; but that he deſired the Noble D—— or any other Perſon in A————n to ſay he ever expreſſed himſelf, either directly or indirectly, in favour of that unconſtitutional Proceeding; and he called, particularly, on the Noble D—— to declare whether his Suggeſtion of this Matter, was not principally, and only, formed from his Silence?" The Queſtion being immediately proceeded on, prevented a Reply, and put an End to the Contention.

Feb. 8. We are informed that a Coalition is likely to take Place, a Plan having been drawn up by one of the greateſt Stateſmen of the Age, which has received the R——l Approbation, and that of the M———y; and it is ſaid the E—— of C———m and L—— C———n's Opinions were to be laid before the P——— C———l Yeſterday.

The greateſt Preparations are making in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, in order to celebrate the Day of Mr. Wilkes's Releaſement.

Great Wagers continue ſtill to be laid at both Ends of the Town, that notwithſtanding the boaſted Firmneſs of A————n, a total Change will certainly take Place before the Concluſion of the preſent Month, and along with it a D——n of P———.

Others have ventured large Sums, that nothing of the Kind will happen, and even if it ſhould, that when once the preſent Oppoſition have ſeated themſelves in the Saddle, they will be far from thinking a D——n neceſſary, as their own Intereſt will be too deeply concerned in the Event.

We are informed a great Perſonage has declared, that the preſent Miniſtry "ſhall be upheld."

We hear that the E—— of C———m has aſſured a noble M———s, that he will, at this dangerous Criſis, exert himſelf to the utmoſt, in order to get the Complaints of the People heard, and, if poſſible, their Grievances redreſſed.

An Eſtimate, per Bills of Lading, of all the Britiſh Manufactures which were ſhipped laſt Autumn for America, and have lately been returned upon the Merchants Hands, at London, Briſtol, Liverpool, and the other Out-Ports, is preparing for the Inſpection of an auguſt Aſſembly.

Feb. 9. A certain Earl of great Abilities has again refuſed the Appointment of Firſt Miniſter of this Country, though he alone ſupported Three ſucceſſive Adminiſtrations, and extricated them from all thoſe Errors and Difficulties which conſtantly ariſe from a Want of Judgment, Penetration, Knowledge, and Experience.

It is ſaid that many Noble Lords in the Minority, have repeatedly declared, that they will never agree to any Propoſals for a Coalition, without a previous Aſſurance is made, that the Rights of Election and Repreſentation, ſhall be ſecured to the People.

Feb. 10. As the Second Queſtion was debating on Friday Night laſt in a certain Society, a Diviſion was propoſed by a Member, on Account of the late Hour, and the Waſte of Spirit they muſt neceſſarily have undergone during the former Debate; when L—— C———m roſe up, and ſaid he was directly againſt that Motion; "For, added that N———n, though I am here ſuffering more than any other L—— in the Aſſembly, on Account of my Infirmities, I am willing to ſtay ſomewhat longer, that I might have, at leaſt, the Pleaſure to ſee the Sun riſe on ſuch Proceedings."

Feb. 12. We are aſſured that a certain Perſon, whoſe Intereſt connects with the C——t, received a ſevere Reprimand for his Conduct, in withdrawing himſelf from a particular Place, and taking his Relation with him, when a late Queſtion of Importance was to be decided.

We hear that a certain great Man, who has lately altered his political Conduct, has thereby ſo exaſperated a very great Perſonage, that he has ſtruck him out of a certain Liſt with his own Hand. And it is ſaid, it will not be long before he will be deprived of all his civil and maritime Appointments.

A patriotic Nobleman has delivered it as his Opinion in a late C——n—l, that notwithſtanding the preſent unhappy Diviſions at home, and the exhauſted State of our Finances, the firſt Blow that ſhall be ſtruck by France or Spain againſt the Ruſſians, muſt at all Events be conſidered as a Declaration of War againſt Great-Britain; and we hear the Majority of the Members preſent acquieſced in his Reaſons.

We are informed, that a certain great Perſonage has declared himſelf againſt conferring any more Titles or Honours on ſuch Commoners whoſe Claim to them is their Riches, and not their Deſcent.—It is further ſaid, this Reſolution is the Conſequence of ſome late very extraordinary Applications.

Proofs of the Truth of his Aſſertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majeſty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he ſhould think himſelf obliged at all Times to ſtand up in Defence of his M———'s juſt Rights; but Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. Theſe are the Hardſhips which we now undergo, and what we ſhall ſuffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Conſul at Vigo. When you write to me deſire the ti- [illegible] in their Endeav[illegible] prevent a Remo[illegible]nce from the County of Kent.

Yeſterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Manſion-Houſe, at which were preſent, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of ſociety, the Bets were 81 to 42 on a popular Queſtion.

A certain great Officer in the Law has declared that he will not reſign without a Penſion; that "he will at any Time deliver up his Commiſſion with one Hand, on receiving the Warrant of a Penſion with the other."

We hear that the P———t will break up on Tueſday the 20th of March.

We hear that a certain great Perſonage is determined for the Future to be his own Miniſter himſelf.

It is aſſerted for Fact, by thoſe whoſe Situation in Life gives them the beſt Opportunity to be acquainted with ſuch Matters, that without ſome healing Meaſures are ſpeedily adopted, our whole American Trade will be inevitably loſt.

It is ſaid, that his Grace the Duke of Grafton has, ſince his Reſignation of the Poſt of Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, actually refuſed a Penſion of 4000l. per Annum, which his Majeſty moſt graciouſly offered him, as a Mark of his great Regard for his Grace, and the high Eſtimation in which he held his Merit and Services.

Letters from Madrid affirm, that Orders have been given to fit out Sixteen Ships of the Line with the utmoſt Expedition, and that the Land Forces are to be conſiderably augmented; from which Circumſtances it is conjectured his Catholic Majeſty will oppoſe the Ruſſian Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The natural Army of any German Elector is under 20,000 Men. When they exceed that Number, it either falls heavy on their Subjects, or they muſt be ſubſidized by ſome great Power. The King of Pruſſia has now above 220,000 Men—is not ſubſidized—and therefore muſt employ them ſoon, or be ruined by their Expence.

We are informed, that Orders are diſpatched to the recruiting Parties in the different Parts of England, with Inſtructions for advancing the Bounty-Money, in order to excite the Country People with a greater Emulation to enliſt.

It is thought that nothing leſſened the Credit of the M———, in the Opinion of the Public, ſo much as their Behaviour to Lord Camden.

We hear that the Seals are not yet diſpoſed of, notwithſtanding it has been ſo often affirmed in the Papers.

Feb. 16. This Day his Majeſty will go in State to the Houſe of Peers, to give the Royal Aſſent to the Land-Tax Bill, for the enſuing Year; the Bill to puniſh Mutiny and Deſertion, the Bill for regulating Marines, when on ſhore; and to ſuch other Bills as are ready.

The Levee which Lord North had at the Cockpit Yeſterday, was the greateſt that has been there this Winter; the Number of Noblemen and Gentlemen's Carriages that attended, were near 200.

It is ſaid a certain Nobleman has employed a Number of Clerks for a Month paſt, who have worked Night and Day in adjuſting his Accounts, which were much confuſed, previous to his laying them before the Barons of the Exchequer.

It ſhould ſeem by a late Publication, that the ſcheming Baronet is truſty and well-beloved;——how well beloved he may be is doubtful; but that he is not truſty, appears from an Advertiſement to apprehend him, which appeared a few Days ſince.

It is beyond a Doubt that a Reconciliation has taken Place between a beautiful but unfortunate young Lady of Quality and her Huſband, the Nobleman who cauſed her Indiſcretion is certainly Mad.

Upwards of Three Hundred Thouſand Pounds worth of Goods are now ready to ſhip for North America, which all lay ſtored up in this City, 'til the final Concluſion of the American Affairs are finiſhed in a certain auguſt Aſſembly, which we ſincerely hope will terminate in favour of all Parties concerned.

A Correſpondent aſſures us, that the Patriot in the King's Bench has had no leſs than Six Suits of rich Cloaths preſented to him in the Space of a Fortnight paſt, by Perſons who chuſe to be incog.

This Day the Deciſion of a very important Queſtion comes on in a great Aſſembly.

The Queſtion whether the preſent V————oy of I———d ſhould continue in his Station, we hear was lately debated in the P——y C———l, when the late Premier urged, "that though they might fix on a Perſon of greater Abilities, they never could have a Servant that would more implicitly obey the Dictums of M————y." This Argument prevailed, and he is to be further continued in Office.

Feb. 21. Monday Night, in a great political Society, the Queſtion relative to the Expulſion and Incapacity of a certain popular Gentleman was finally determined: The Numbers, on the laſt Diviſion were 237 to 159, Majority 78; ſo that the Expulſion, and the Incapacity of that Gentleman to be elected during the preſent P————t, are now declared to be legal and conſtitutional.

Feb. 28. In a late Conference between a great Perſonage and a late popular Commander, on the Subject of his political Principles, which have been lately altered, the former was ſo extremely pathetic in lamenting the Loſs of ſo valuable a Servant, and expreſſed ſo much perſonal Regard for him, that it drew Tears from both Parties.

We hear ſome Accounts are received from America, backed by ſome conſiderable Perſons in the ſeveral Colonies, requeſting the Mother-Country for Leave of a free Trade.

At the Court at St. James's, the Twenty-ſixth Day of February, 1770.

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed to deliver the Cuſtody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable George Dunk Earl of Halifax, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day adminiſtered to him; and his Lordſhip took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Thomas Robinſon, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſehold, was, by his Majeſty's Command, ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

ANNAPOLIS, May 3.

We are credibly informed, that a few Days ago a Ship arrived in Patowmack, and brings certain Advices that a total Repeal of the American Revenue-Act had paſſed the Houſe of Commons on the 7th of March, after having been very warmly debated in the Houſe for Two Days;—and that Col. Luttrell was confirmed in his Seat as Member of Parliament for the County of Middleſex.

We hear the Brig Bayon, Capt. Howard, belonging to Londonderry, but laſt from St. Kitts, conſign'd to Mr. John Stevenſon, of Baltimore, with a Cargo of Rum, Sugar, &c. is aſhore near our Capes. The Cargo, Rigging &c. are ſaved, but it is uncertain whether the Veſſel can be got off.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in this Province, dated February 21, 1770.

"I was in Hopes to have been able this Day to give you the pleaſing Intelligence of a Repeal of the laſt American Revenue-Act, but now they are vaniſhed, and whatever may be the ſanguine Expectations of others, I profeſs there appears to me but little Proſpect of a Repeal taking Place this Seſſion; but that you may judge as well as me, I will give you an Account of this Day's Proceedings in the Houſe of Commons, as well as my Memory will admit.

"The American Merchant's Petition, (a Copy of which I don't doubt you have had from other Hands) was ſet for Conſideration this Day; when it came on, Lord N——h, the firſt Lord of the Treaſury, moved and carried it to be put off 'til March the 5th; he ſaid, he was not yet determined upon the Meaſures that were proper to be taken with America, and that he was by no Means of the ſame Opinion with thoſe who deſired a total Repeal of the Act, tho' he ſhou'd be always ready to hear and attend to their Reaſons for their Opinion, and if it was urged that a miniſterial Promiſe was given for the Repeal by Lord H—ſb—h's Circular Letter, he conceived that did by no Means extend to the Duty on Tea: He was urged by ſeveral Members to declare that the 5th of March ſhou'd peremptorily be the Day, but he ſat ſilent, by which it appears to me, that a further Delay is intended, and by what was ſaid by ſeveral Members in private to me, it appeared that at preſent they do not intend to give up the Duty on Tea. Juſt before this, Lord N—h moved and carried it without Oppoſition, to addreſs his Majeſty to lay before the Houſe, the ſeveral Aſſociations with the Names of the Subſcribers, that had been entered into in America againſt the Importation of Britiſh Goods, which have been tranſmitted from thence to the Secretary of State and Board of Trade. The Uſe to be made of this is yet to be conjectured, but in my Opinion, either Reſolutions of the Houſe, or an Act will paſs to make ſuch Aſſociations criminal; therefore look about you in Time, and be provided for ſuch a Stroke; I can't ſay any Thing about ſuch a diabolical Scheme, the very Thought of it is abominable, a Nero or Calagula cou'd not deviſe a more tyrannical Meaſure.

"The Miniſtry do not appear to be Friends to America, and they have a deciſive Majority in the H—e of C——ns, tho' it is ſomewhat leſs than it has been, ſo that if you expect Relief, you muſt find it in your own Virtue, Firmneſs, Unanimity, Frugality, and Attention to Manufactures. But how has it happened in the Name of Wonder, that it ſhou'd be a diſputed Point here at this Time of the Day, what are the American Grievances? The Merchants in their Petition have only mentioned the laſt Revenue-Act, tho' ſtrongly urged by me and a few others to include all your Grievances. If you expect the Merchants here to exert themſelves in your Cauſe, 'twou'd be very proper for all America to join in one general Plan, to ſtate her Demands fully and clearly to the Merchants, ſo that they may no longer pretend to doubt what it is you want."

TO THE PRINTERS.

The Committee for Queen-Anne requeſt you will publiſh the following Tranſaction in your next Paper.

The Committee are clearly of Opinio that ſaid Articles were imported through Miſtak without any Deſign to violate the General Agreemen
